Hello,

THANK YOU!!! WELL DONE!!! AWESOME START TO THE YEAR!!!! This morning, we had almost zero cars arrive after 7:20 am, which made for a very smooth drop-off and start for the Middle School. I have heard the saying, "start as you mean to continue" and if this is our start, I'm looking forward to what it will look like as we continue.

I hope that everyone started the day off well. Attached is the NMS Handbook Highlights, a document that is a shorter version of the NMS Handbook, which is available on the website. The Handbook Highlights contain contact information, tips to support students in healthy decision making and an outline of our school policies and procedures.

One of our administrative goals this year is to improve student attendance through communication and collaboration with families. Please review the school's attendance policy and reach out at any time if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Ellen Murray
