

MAKING CITATIONS

- 1) Sign into NoodleTools under Access Via GSuite using your school e-mail account.
- 2) Create a project (MLA Jr.) if you don't have one already made.
- 3) Go to Sources (at top of screen) to create/add/edit citations.
- 4) Click "Create new citation" button, answer questions about source, and fill in form.
- 5) Use checklists below to help you fill out form.

BOOK:

Must Haves

- Title
- Author
- Publisher
- Publication City
- Year of Publication

Might (Not) Haves

- Illustrator
- Translator
- Digital File Type (e.g. Nook, Kindle)
- Series Title

WEB SITE:

Must Haves

- URL
- Title of Source (Web page, Image, Video — whatever you're referring to)
- Title of Container/Web Site (on which the page/image/etc. is posted)
- Date of Access

Might (Not) Haves

- Author/Artist/Posted by
- Date of Creation (images only)
- Date of Publication
- Publisher

DATABASE ARTICLE:

- Source Citation (copied/pasted from database)

Works Cited

Book details for A Single Shard by Linda Sue Park. AR BookFinder, Renaissance Learning, www.arbookfind.com/bookdetail.aspx?q=49768&l=EN&slid=25492532. Accessed 29 Sept. 2016.

Copyright. BrainPOP.

Fiske, Angelique. "Patriots Build New Playground in Providence." New England Patriots, 27 Sept. 2016, www.patriots.com/news/2016/09/27/patriots-build-new-playground-providence. Accessed 29 Sept. 2016.

Hiddleston, Tom, performer. Cookie Monster Learns a Lesson from Tom Hiddleston. PBS, 2013. YouTube, Google, www.youtube.com/watch?v=b_ubVVnWglk. Accessed 29 Sept. 2016.

Ness, Patrick. A Monster Calls. Illustrated by Jim Kay, Candlewick, 2011. Inspired by an idea from Siobhan Dowd.

Overbye, Dennis. "A Telescope to the Past As Galileo Visits U.S." New York Times, 28 Mar. 2009, p. A8. Science in Context. Accessed 29 Sept. 2016.

Schulze, John W. "Ancient Greek Helmet." Flickr, Yahoo, 22 Dec. 2011, www.flickr.com/photos/gruenemann/6767164453/. Accessed 29 Sept. 2016.